

Crafting a Philosophy of Advising

UC Davis Coffee Talk
Spring 2020

What is a Philosophy of Advising?

A personal statement operates like a combination of a mission statement and a vision statement for an individual's advising practice.

-----

It should reflect advising experiences and aspirational goals for professional and personal growth.

Why would you want one?

- Articulates the kind of professional that you are
- Gives structure to advising sessions with students
- Recognizes areas of strength
- Identifies areas for growth
- Defines values
- Increases self-awareness
- For personal or professional use

What should you include?

- The personal qualities you have and use as an academic advisor
- The environment you want to create for students
- The experience that you want students to have in an advising appointment
- The advising theories and approaches that you have integrated (or would like to integrate) into your advising practice
- The professional aspirations that inspire and motivate you

When should you write one?

- Now!
  - Aspiring advisors
  - Early career advisors
  - Seasoned advisors

Resources for Developing Your Philosophy of Advising

- Draw on your professional experiences and goals
- Think about what inspires you
- Incorporate your academic experience – degree(s) and training(s)
- Complete the philosophy prompts
  - <https://advisingmatters.berkeley.edu/sites/default/files/general/Statement%20of%20Advising%20Philosophy%20Prompts.pdf>
- Read examples
  - <https://nacada.ksu.edu/Resources/Clearinghouse/View-Articles/Personal-advising-philosophy-examples.aspx>
- NACADA eTutorial: Theory and Practice of Advising
  - <https://nacada.ksu.edu/Programs/Online-Education/eTutorials/Theory-Practice-of-Advising.aspx>